If you are a private tenant renting from a registered housing association, charity or hostel, you can choose to have your Housing Benefit paid direct to you or your landlord. We recommend you choose option 1 or 2 and tell us the account details. Then go to Part 15.

If you are renting from a private landlord we will normally pay you, not your landlord. Please tick option 1 and tell us your bank or building society details on the next page. If you think you would have difficulties managing your Housing Benefit and paying your rent, you must tell us below.

If you rent from a private landlord and you want us to consider paying your Housing Benefit to them, or their agent, you or your representative must fill in this part of the form.

You must answer all the questions and give us as much information and as many supporting documents as possible. We will use all of this to make a decision about whether we pay you, your landlord or your landlord's agent. We will try to make a decision before the first payment. If we cannot do this, we will decide who to pay while we are gathering information and making a decision. We will then review our decision once we have the full facts.

Please tell us if any of the following would cause you difficulties with paying your rent:

Sometimes, sharing information with your landlord helps us deal with your claim quickly and reduces the risk of you falling behind with your rent because your claim is delayed. Under the Data Protection Act, we need your permission to share information.

If you give us permission, we would be able to tell your landlord:

- whether or not you had claimed or renewed your claim for Housing Benefit and, if so, whether we have made a decision on your claim or not; and
- if we need more information to make a decision on your claim, and if so, what information this is.

There may be other information about your claim that we need to check with your landlord, such as the date your tenancy started, before we can make a decision on your claim. If this is the case, we have to ask your landlord even if you have not given us permission to discuss your claim with them. But unless you have given us permission by signing this form, we will not discuss anything else with your landlord.

We will not give your landlord any information about:

- your personal or household circumstances; or your financial circumstances.

If you do not give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord, it will not affect your claim and if you give us permission but then change your mind, we will do as you ask. Just contact us and let us know.

If you want to give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord, please sign below.

I give you (North Northamptonshire Council) permission to share my information about the progress of my Housing Benefit claim with my landlord or their representative.

Use this box to tell us anything else you think we should know about your claim. Send a separate sheet of paper if you need more space. If you are sending a separate sheet of paper, tick this box.

P16 - Backdating

We can usually award benefit from the Monday after the day we receive your claim. Sometimes we can pay benefit for a period before the date you claimed, this is called backdating. The law says we can backdate your benefit for up to 1 month in the case of working aged claimants and up to 3 months in the case of pensioners, but you must have a good reason why your claim is late. This is known as a 'good cause'.

We will look at each case individually . 'A good cause' is a reason that prevented you from claiming benefit earlier. Good causes may include the following, depending on the circumstances:

- You were ill and nobody else could claim for you.
- You were given wrong advice by an official organisation who said you were not entitled to Housing Benefit or Council Tax Support (or both).
- You were not able to manage your own affairs and had no one to help you.
- A close relative died.

The examples are only a guide to help you. They are not a full list of all possible reasons.

Claiming benefit that you are not entitled to is stealing.

If you pay taxes, whether it is income tax or VAT, your money is used to help pay towards state benefits. If we can stop people claiming benefit they are not entitled to, the money could be put to better use.

We have a 'Benefit Fraud Hotline'. If you know anyone who is claiming benefit they are not entitled to, you can phone 0800 854 440. You do not have to give your name if you don't want to but we need the name and address (if possible) of the person who is claiming benefit when they shouldn't. We need as much information about the situation as possible, for example, where they work if they are working, or if they are living with someone but claiming as a single person. These people are claiming money that the rest of us are helping to pay for.
